

terms of payments to prospective purchasers. Paragraph (h) prohibits respondents from failing to reveal orally, prior to the customer's entering into a contract, and in writing on the subscription form, the names, number of issues, total cost, installment payments, method of payments and the right to rescind the sale within three business days of receipt of the sales agreement. Paragraph (i) prohibits respondents from representing that a purchase agreement is any other kind of document other than a contract or agreement. Paragraph (j) prohibits respondents from failing to identify the nature and legal import of any document that the consumer is required to execute. Paragraph (k) prohibits respondents from engaging in any unfair or deceptive practice in order to effect payment. Paragraph (l) prohibits respondents from cancelling any subscription contract for any reason other than a breach by the subscriber or a request by the subscriber; Paragraph (m) prohibits respondents from failing to provide to each consumer a copy of the subscription contract showing either the date it was mailed to the consumer or the date the consumer signed the contract and the name, address and telephone number of the seller or the service company used by the seller. Paragraph (n) prohibits respondents from failing to provide a sheet separable from the written sales agreement which can be used as a notice of cancellation. Paragraph (o) prohibits respondents from failing to cancel a sales agreement where the request is received fourteen (14) calendar days from the date the agreement was mailed or delivered to the purchaser and from refunding any payment received within thirty (30) days after cancellation. Paragraph (p) prohibits respondents from failing to furnish those PDS customers who use payment coupons, with specific information on the coupon payment book including the total coupons in the book, the total dollar amount of all such coupons, and the seller's address and telephone number. Paragraph (q) prohibits the respondents from failing to offer the right to substitute magazines on a pro rata dollar-for-dollar basis or extending subscription periods on magazines already selected, in the event of the discontinuance of publication or availability of magazines already subscribed for by the customer. Paragraph (r) prohibits respondents from failing to cancel, at the subscriber's sole option, any portion of a contract whenever any misrepresentation prohibited by the order has been made. Finally, Paragraph (s) prohibits respondents from furnishing the means and instrumentalities to others by which the public may be misled in the manner or as to the things prohibited by this order.

Part II of the proposed consent order required BMI and its dealers to distribute copies of the order to each of the present and future dealers, employees and other representatives; to secure from such persons a statement indicating their intention to be bound by the order; to institute a program of continuing surveillance to reveal whether such persons are conforming to the order and to discontinue dealing with any such persons who are revealed to be engaging in practices prohibited by the order.

Part III of the proposed consent order requires BMI to notify the Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of any proposed change in the corporate respondent.

Part IV of the proposed consent order requires the individually named respondents to notify the Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to the sale or discontinuance of the entities through which they have been engaging in the sale of subscription contracts or of the creation of any additional businesses or entry into any new business engaged in the telemarketing of products or services.

Part V of the proposed consent order vacates the Decision and Order in Docket No. 8831, issued on August 3, 1972, insofar as it applies to the respondents in this matter.

The purpose of this analysis is to facilitate public comment on the proposed order. It is not intended to constitute an official interpretation of the agreement and proposed order or to modify in any way their terms.
